Tuition Types

Note that each MATE ROV Competition event will offer three tuition types for participants to register, including (1) Coach / Team Registration, (2) Student & Mentor Registration, and (3) Volunteer Registration.

The lead Mentor or Coach will register to create the team along with themselves under the Coach / Team Registration tuition, paying the fee to begin the process. Once the team has been created, then all other team members may join for free as students or mentors.

Other MATE events listed include online sessions like the Fluid Power Quiz with a $25 flat fee tuition rate which may be added to an individual's registry for team completion, as needed.

Competition Classes

Note that the competition classes offered, and fees charged at MATE ROV Competition regional events may vary. Check the regional network webpages for frequently asked questions and details such as available competition classes and registration fees.

U.S.-based regional competitions may offer three class types for teams to register, including (1) SCOUT, (2) NAVIGATOR, and (3) RANGER. International-based competitions may offer higher classes for World Championship qualifying teams, as approved.

The MATE ROV Competition World Championship offers these three class types for teams to register, including (1) RANGER, (2) PIONEER, and (3) EXPLORER. Only pre-qualified RANGER teams and those advancing from regional events will be invited to register and compete in the World Championship event.

Team Registration (Coach / Mentor)

Team registration begins with the Team Coach (lead Mentor) creating the team's name, password to join, and paying the fee for group participation. This is accomplished by clicking on the event registration link and selecting the Coach / Mentor tuition type for your class of competition.

See example below for EXPLORER class (Coach / Mentor) registration selection.
